

Vicky O'Sullivan

Digital Engineering & Transformation Project Lead
AIR & SPACE FORCES CENTER
MITRE NATIONAL SECURITY SECTOR

Vicky O'Sullivan is the Digital Engineering and Transformation project lead, Cyber Operations Division, Air & Space Forces Center, in MITRE's National Security Sector. In this role she serves as the lead for MITRE's work with the AF Digital Transformation Office (DTO) and Cloud One program. Vicky works with projects across the MITRE Air & Space Forces Center to leverage and align digital transformation efforts and ensure synchronization with the DAF Digital Transformation strategies. Vicky played a key role in establishing the DE platform minimum viable product that would evolve into Digital Platform as a Service (DPaaS) offered through Cloud One.

Prior to joining MITRE in 2016, Vicky spent over 10 years as a systems engineer working for the Air Force on programs ranging from the B-2 to Cyber Weapons Systems. Vicky earned both her Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering and Master of Science in Systems Engineering degrees from Worcester Polytechnic Institute.
